

How to Get to Hemlock Printers

from downtown Vancouver

- 1 Take the quickest route from your location to Kingsway (Highway 1A/99A), either
 - south across the Burrard Street Bridge, then east on 12th Avenue to Kingsway; or
 - south across the Cambie Street Bridge, then east on 12th Avenue to Kingsway; or
 - east on Georgia Street across the viaduct, then south on Main Street to Kingsway.
- 2 Follow Kingsway for 8.5 kilometers (5.3 miles) into Burnaby, past Metrotown mall on the right until Buller Avenue (Buller lies between Imperial Street on the west and Gilley Avenue on the East - look for Blockbuster Video on the southeast corner of Kingsway and Buller).
- 3 Turn right (south) on Buller Avenue and drive the equivalent of two blocks until you see Hemlock Printers on the left. Visitors parking is available at the front of the building (north end) near the main entrance.
